Julia Munro Announces Intention to Retire

Toronto – After 22 years of service, 6 successful elections, and three riding names, MPP Julia Munro (York-Simcoe) would like to announce that she has made a difficult decision:

“I have never lost my enthusiasm for public service, however in any career there comes a time to retire. Nobody can do this job alone. I am forever grateful to my family, staff, volunteers, and constituents for their faith and trust in me over the years. I look forward to serving the remainder of this term, and to spending more time with my family. I will not be seeking re-nomination.”

In January Munro became the longest serving female MPP in Ontario’s history. Over the years she has served as the Parliamentary Assistant to the Premier, Deputy Speaker, a Committee Chair, and in a variety of other roles.
